

Strategic Initiative Recommendations & Awards 2019-20

Champion:

Summary:

Recommend first year of a multi-year proposal; re-submission for funding beyond first year will be welcome in next funding cycle(s).

Faculty-mentored student research is a high-impact teaching practice that is demonstrated to have a disproportionately positive impact on first-generation college students and students from underrepresented groups. Furthermore, recent studies demonstrate that employers highly value critical thinking